Former Manager of State Bank
Makes Statements and Lemke Denies Them

J. J. Weeks, special prosecutor, opened the argument for the state before the jury in the Brinton case this afternoon. Mr. Weeks and Arthur LeSueur, defense counsel, will argue the case. No time limit was set on their speeches. Weeks told the jury in opening his address that if the jury found the defendant had committed perjury on any one of the twenty-four assignments in the information it was the jury's duty to find him guilty. In beginning the phase of his argument involving the Bank of North Dakota he read the rules of the bank showing its policy.

The Brinton perjury trial neared its close today when testimony was completed and preparation made for arguments of the case. The defense rested its case at 9:15 a. m. and the state closed its rebuttal testimony at 11 o'clock, when adjournment was taken until afternoon.

The defense closed its testimony with additional statements by J. R. Waters, former manager of the Bank of North Dakota, and the rebuttal witnesses of the state were Attorney General William Lemke and H. A. Paddock.

Lemke denied flatly a statement Waters said he had made to the effect that, after being warned in January 1920, of the condition of the Scandinavian-American bank, he said: "By God, we'll keep that bank open if it takes every dollar of public funds in the state of North Dakota."

When Waters was on the stand he was pressed for details by Special Prosecutor Weeks, following his testimony regarding the Lemke statement. Waters said that the conversation was about collateral of the Scandinavian bank and that Lemke said he thought it would work out, but said he could not give many details. Waters asserted that L. P. McNaney told him Lemke made the same statement to him.

H. A. Paddock, on the witness stand, denied that he was ever in charge of the Scandinavian bank, saying that he was in the bank for a time in charge of collection of collateral for the Consumers' Stores company had placed in the bank, being in the store company employ.

Mr. Lemke admitted there was a discussion over the condition of the Scandinavian-American bank in the Governor's office, which he thought was before the June primary. He said he had replied to Waters' assertions that he thought Waters was unduly exercised about the bank and said that he thought Waters was influenced as a prospective purchaser who wanted to squeeze stockholders out.

Waters on Stand.

J. R. Waters, former manager of the Bank of North Dakota, was one of the defense witnesses yesterday afternoon. Waters detailed his relations with the Bank of North Dakota and his discussions with leaders concerning the conduct of the bank. Waters testified of his differences with F. W. Cathro, director-general of the bank, said they were personal friends and that their differences were solely as to the policy of the bank. As evidence of their personal relationship Cathro and Waters sat together outside the court house after court adjourned last evening holding conversation.

Waters reiterated his former statements that he had warned Governor Frazier in January, 1920, about the condition of the Scandinavian-American bank, which he said was bad, and that he told the governor that "if that bank ever blows up don't say Jim Waters warned you."

Cathro, Waters said, was picked for the job of helping organize the bank by William Lemke. He said that he wanted E. J. Schorge, of Williston, a member of the guaranty fund commission, to help organize the bank. Townley, he said, wanted to send a man named Swenson from Minneapolis.

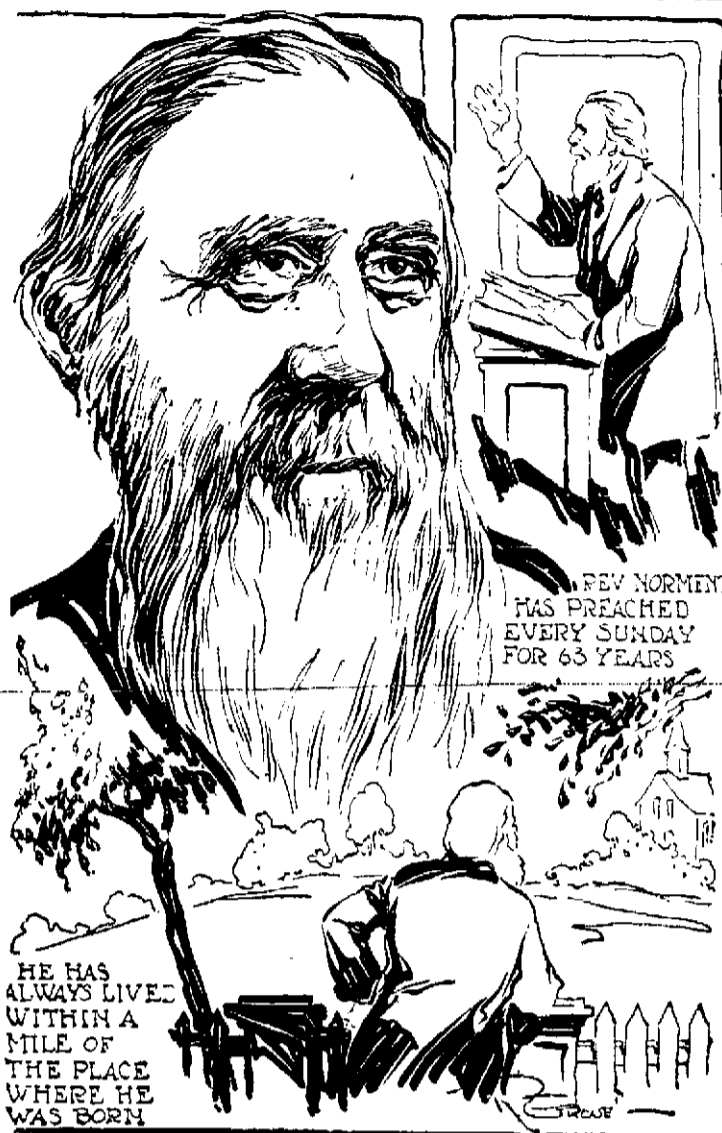

When he kicked on his salary, Waters said Townley told him: "You've got no kick coming, you are getting $5,000 a year from the bank and $5,000 from the Sisat Trust."

Regarding Guaranty Law.

Discussing the method the Bank of North Dakota proposed to use of relying on deposits under the guaranty of deposits law instead of requiring collateral from banks, or in case collateral was obtained, Waters said that he had opposed it, because as bank examiner he had held that if collateral was given that made it a loss and no recovery could be claimed under the guaranty law.

Testifying regarding the $330,000 of paper brought in the Bank of North Dakota from the Scandinavian-American bank Waters declared that he objected to this collateral, except a small pile which he separated being received in the bank. He said that he did tell Brinton that if that paper were allowed to come in the Bank of North Dakota he would resign as manager and make the deal public.

OLDEST PASTOR PROVES FAME AT HOME POSSIBLEHE HAS ALWAYS LIVED
WITHIN A MILE OF
THE PLACE
WHERE HE WAS BORN

REV. W. M. NORMENT

Have you traveled far and wide, left the little old home town in your search for fame and contentment?

I have you felt the call of a big city?

After all, the place where you were born has all these things just waiting for the right one to come along and seize them.

Rev. W. M. Norment proves this. He was born at Whiteville, Tenn., back in 1823. There were few people in the little settlement in those days—and there are less than 1000 today.

Yet Rev. Norment has never lived more than a mile from the place where he was born. For 92 years he has been a Whitevillian. And, of the 92 years he has been preaching 64—never missed a Sunday in the pulpit of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Fame! He has acquired it in his own home town. In point of service he is the oldest preacher in the world.

Rev. Norment remembers well some of his old school day chums.

Many of them went to the big cities. Most of them have died—unknown outside the circle of their friends.

"I have never aspired to be a big preacher, nor to build up a rich congregation. I have tried, instead, to keep self and self-interest in the background," says Rev. Norment.

"To me, there is too much of show, too much of self in the pulpit and in the new today."

Many of the Whiteville folks who Rev. Norment christened, years ago, are now in their graves.

"I, too, am growing a bit feeble," says the preacher, "but I am still able to fill my pulpit."

As a young man the old pastor called on Andrew Jackson.

"It was a short time before the great general died," he says. "I made the trip with several other boys of Cumberland University."

"Mr. Jackson expressed his appreciation for our call. He gave us a fatherly talk upon the responsibilities of life, of church and of state."

Rev. Norment is modest—but the people of Whiteville are proud that one of their own remained at home and traveled the road to fame.

Funding Plan to Aid
Rail Lines

ROADS TO GIVE SECURITY

Washington, July 7.—Treasury Secretary Mellon announced today that under a provisional refunding arrangement made with the railroad executives the carriers would receive approximately five hundred million dollars from the federal government within the next six months.

Mr. Mellon said negotiations with the railroad executives probably would be completed within two days and that the advances contemplated would give to the railroads in cash sums of money equivalent to those which the government spent in capital betterments during war-time control. The government will receive for the advances 6 per cent security evidencing the indebtedness of the particular railroad which receives the advance. It was explained.

Mr. Mellon indicated that additional appropriations would be sought from Congress to make the advances.

New York, July 7.—Organizers of the Independent—anti-prohibition—parade, on Fifth avenue, announced that members would be furnished with names of commercial houses that oppose prohibition and would be asked not to deal with such houses. Organization intends going into politics also. It announces that it will support "wet" candidates for national, state and local offices.

GUMMERSON IN
VISIT TO CITYFormer Courier-News Editor
Talks with Officials

C. K. Gummerson, who was editor of the Fargo Courier-News until the disagreement three years yesterday, came to Bismarck today on the noon train. Mr. Gummerson declined to add to the comment he had already made in Fargo. He went to the McKenzie hotel, where it was expected he would confer with state officials.

Mr. Gummerson was Courier-News representative in Bismarck before he went to Fargo as editor.

PARACHUTE AIDS OFFICER TO MAKE HIS APPOINTMENT

Bedford, England, July 7.—A night watchman at the royal airship hangar at Cardington near here got the surprise of his life when he saw a parachute dropping from the sky early in the morning. "Can I get a bed here?" asked a calm voice.

The parachutist was Air-Commodore E. N. Maitland, on his way home to Bowden air station from Epsom aboard the dirigible R-33 which had acted as official traffic controller and wireless station at the Derby races.

Commodore Maitland explained that he had suddenly remembered that he had to attend an important meeting at the Cardington station in the early morning. "The only way to get here in time was to jump right off," he said.

TALK REINSURANCE CO.

Proposed to Form Big Company to Meet Emergencies for Others

Discussion of the formation of a re-insurance company was one of the important topics before the representatives of the North Dakota Farmers' Mutual Insurance Association, which opened a two-day convention in Bismarck today. Thirty representatives of various mutual companies of the state are in attendance.

Paul Goldade, of Minn., is chairman of the committee having in charge the reinsurance subject. It is proposed to form a company which would aid small mutual companies in case of disaster which brought extraordinary calls upon the company. There are about 25 mutual companies in the state.

No change in the present policy of the farmers mutuals is expected. They do not desire state insurance, but to continue the mutual fire and tornado companies and strengthen them. Reports to be made by the others will show the companies in prosperous condition, it was said.

The delegates were welcomed by G. N. Keniston, secretary of the Commercial club, and the response was made by Mr. Goldade. George Dickinson, of Bismarck, president of the association, is presiding. Nels Magnuson, of Souris, a member of the legislature, is secretary-treasurer.

S. A. Olness, commissioner of insurance; R. A. Middleton, state fire marshal; and E. E. Engelbert, of Washington, D. C., an economist in farm finance, were to speak this afternoon. The convention will adjourn tomorrow afternoon.

DENIES STAY IN NEWSPAPER CASE

The supreme court denied the application of the Courier-News, William Lemke, George P. McPherson and Herbert E. Gaston in the libel suit brought against them by the Lilliput Langer, for a stay of proceedings in district court of Judge F. P. Allen. Judge Allen had denied a further change of venue from Richland county, after one change of venue was granted. The supreme court held it could not consider the appeal before Judge Allen had acted on a plea for stay of proceedings pending with him.

FACTS FOR THE CITY TAXPAYERS

Fargo with a population several times that of Bismarck has had little or no success with its incinerator for garbage disposal. An incinerator installed at a cost of $3,500 has been out of commission for three years.

The plant has never functioned properly owing to faulty design. In order to properly incinerate it was necessary to use so much fuel that the cost of operation became prohibitive.

Fargo has under consideration the purchase of another plant which it is thought will meet the requirements of the city.

Grand Forks finds that for $1,500, the initial cost, it has secured a satisfactory incinerator. The cost of operation in 1920 was $2,600. An incinerator fireman is paid $110 a month. It is a lamp chimney shaped burner and is located one mile from the city. Three wagons haul the refuse at a contract price of $140 per month per rig. Poplar wood is used as a fuel and the cost of replacement of incinerator parts is rather high because of the rapid deterioration of the steel racks due to the action of the gasses.

The city has added two units to its original incinerator at a cost of $2,000. Fire brick is used in the construction of the incinerator.

Grand Forks is probably the only city of importance in the state which finds the incinerator satisfactory for garbage disposal. Valley City, Minn., and several other towns stick to the dump method because of the low expense and satisfactory results if properly supervised.

The election July 26, seeks an expression of the voters upon a $5,000 bond issue to install an incinerator. In addition to this figure there must be added to the city budget an additional appropriation for operations and upkeep.

JUDGE SUMMONS
TWO WITNESSES
IN BOWEN CASEJudge Berry Springs Surprise on Both Sides in Trial at Hettinger

CALLS FOR PHYSICIANS

Hettinger, N. D., July 7.—Judge H. L. Berry, presiding in the trial of D. R. Offley for the murder of L. K. Bowen, yesterday sprung a surprise on both the state and the defense.

The defense counsel had been endeavoring to secure as witnesses two living doctors who had examined the body of Bowen, who was killed on his Golden Valley County ranch.

The counsel for the defense objected to the introduction of testimony of Dr. Stow, since deceased, whose testimony given at the preliminary hearing was read into the records. Objection was based on the fact that they were unable to cross-examine him.

Others Examined Him

Two other doctors were known to have examined the body. The state objected to the calling of these physicians. Judge Berry without announcing his action sent orders to the two physicians to report at Hettinger as witnesses and his announcement of their arrival was the first information either side of the case had of the subpoenas.

Tells Former Story

Mrs. Bowen under cross examination yesterday testified largely as at the preliminary examination to the effect that she had seen Taylor use a small handled .32 caliber revolver from a distance of about two paces. She could not be shaken on this. On the witness stand Dr. Maercklein declared that it was impossible that shots should have been fired so closely as there were no powder burns.

Defense Position

Upon further questioning Dr. Maercklein said five bullets had penetrated Bowen's body, that three of the bullets were of .45 calibre and that a fourth had lodged in the brain was of the same calibre and that the fifth, not found undoubtedly was of the same calibre.

The main claim of the defense will be based on the statement of Dr. Maercklein and Mrs. Bowen, that Bowen had raised his right arm to level his gun thus exposing his side. The defense admits and claims that Taylor shot Bowen with a .45 caliber revolver but that he shot only after Bowen had gone to the barn and obtained a gun.

BASEBALL BOOSTERS WANT SPECIAL
TRAIN TO TAKE FANS TO LINTON

Baseball enthusiasts want a special train to carry Bismarck rooters to Linton Sunday for the big Bismarck-Mobridge game.

Lists were put out today, and if 125 persons sign to go a special train over the Northern Pacific can be obtained. The lists were in the hands of boosters of the team today. Fans were urged to make their decision immediately so that definite arrangements can be made.

Mobridge, South Dakota, is sending a special train with its team. There will be big delegations in Linton from many towns. A crowd of 2,500 people is expected at the game. The game promises to be one of the biggest events in this section of the country. Mobridge is said to have one of the best teams in South Dakota and the local management feels with the addition of three new players Bismarck is equal to any team in North Dakota or South Dakota.

The fans will have an opportunity of seeing at least two of the new players in action in the game with Wilton here this evening at 6:30 p. m.

CRIMINAL LIBEL
FILED AGAINST
OLD EMPLOYEESGummerson and Totten Arrested
For Preparing Statement
About Funds

STATE LEADERS MEET

Courier-News Explains Why
Edition of Wednesday
Paper Was Destroyed

Fargo, N. D., July 7.—In an extended statement published today, the Fargo Courier-News asserts that the special edition of that paper confiscated yesterday and destroyed by majority members of the Nonpartisan league state committee was sponsored wholly by disgruntled employees who had been discharged for incompetency. No league state officials had a hand in the affair, asserts the Courier-News, which is today in complete control of the members of the committee against whom charges of mishandling the campaign funds of the league were directed.

Hearing Tomorrow.

George A. Totten, Jr., former business manager of the Fargo Courier-News, and C. K. Gummerson, former editor, arrested yesterday on charge of criminal libel following the publication of an edition of that paper in which it was charged that members of the Nonpartisan league committee handling funds for the recall election to be held in North Dakota this fall had squandered a certain amount of the funds, will be given preliminary hearing on the charges tomorrow. It was announced today.

In addition to the charge of criminal libel Totten was arrested on a federal warrant charging him with transporting liquor. He also is subject to a restraining order preventing him from in any manner exercising control over the Courier-News and funds which he deposited in Fargo banks derived from contributions for the league recall campaign of which he is charged of the embezzlement of $102.70.

Alleged Shortage.

Totten was arrested on the embezzlement charge last Saturday following discovery by Ole Kaldor, treasurer of the committee in charge of the recall fund, that $102.70 sent to that committee had not been acknowledged according to the information on which the warrant was issued. The sender in the amount in question has forwarded his cancelled check to Kaldor and according to the information the money had not been deposited with the fund over which Kaldor had charge but in the Dakota Savings bank to the account of George A. Totten, Jr.

Today Totten was out on bond of $500 on the charge of transporting liquor in violation of the prohibition act pending action by the next session of the grand jury.

Today the executive committee of the Nonpartisan league is meeting here. As the situation stands in the courts today, two former officers of the Courier-News are under arrest and various other court proceedings are under way.

George A. Totten, Jr., former business manager of the paper, in charge at the time of the preparation of the special edition bringing charges against Committeemen Liederbach, Kaldor and Levang, is charged with criminal libel, embezzlement and transporting liquor. Also he is under injunction to prevent him from in any manner exercising any control over the Courier-News, and funds which he deposited in Fargo bank, derived from contributions for the league campaign, have been garnished by Ole Kaldor, treasurer of the state committee.

Criminal Libel.

C. K. Gummerson, the editor in charge when the coup was attempted, is under arrest for criminal libel, charges being preferred by Liederbach.

Totten and Gummerson will be given hearings on the criminal libel charge tomorrow. Totten will be arraigned late this week on the federal warrant charging transportation of liquor, his arrest following discovery of a bottle containing beverage in his car during the height of the disturbance at the Courier-News office yesterday morning.

Late last night, committee members who had arrived in Fargo were in session at the league headquarters. Walter Maddock was the first minority member, coming to Fargo early today. No statement of the meeting was given out today.

Leaders Arrive.

Members of the state executive committee of the Nonpartisan league arrived here today to consider steps in connection with the conduct of league newspapers as a result of yesterday's suppression of a special edition of the Fargo Courier-News ordered by a majority of the committee.

The Nonpartisan league headquarters announced the arrival this morning of the state executive committee members.

What Caused Trouble.

The statement complained of was a letter to the effect that Liederbach and Kaldor had necessary money to pay the league's share of the recall fund, and that they had sent it to the Dakota Savings bank to the account of George A. Totten, Jr.

A situation has arisen with the Nonpartisan league which demands (Continued on Page 3)

Advice received from Moscow have not indicated any serious break between the Bolshevik leaders which would explain the reported arrest of Trotsky.

THREE NEW BALL PLAYERS SIGNED BY BISMARCK CLUB

Team to Put Strong Lineup in Field Against Clubs Coming Soon

WILTON HERE TOMORROW

Three new ball players have been signed by the Bismarck baseball club.

They are Wingfield first baseman of Valley City of last year and first baseman and manager of the Linton team this year. Layman Lisbon player to be used here as utility man probably in outfield. George (Chicken) pitcher on Park River team who played with Bismarck last year to be pitcher on local team.

The full strength of the team is stated by the management will be played in the field against Mobridge S. D. in the same at Linton next Sunday, and will be in the field against Fargo and Minot the following week.

Wilton will play in Bismarck tomorrow night at 6:30. Wingfield and Layman will be in that game. Wingfield replaces Andler at first the latter going to Watertown, S. D., where he played last year.

Wingfield and Chicken are well known to the fans here. Chicken played second base with Bismarck for a time last year, but is said to have had a remarkable record with Park River this year as a pitcher. Layman, it is said, batted over 400 with Lisbon.

Efforts are being made to get a special train to go to Linton Sunday. Erroneous reports have been circulated in towns near Linton that the admission price for the big interstate contest would be very high. It will be, it is understood, 75 cents.

LABOR TROUBLES MAY DISBAND BIG ORCHESTRA

Minneapolis, Minn., July 6.—The Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, known throughout the country as one of premier musical organizations of the middle west, may be disbanded. Trouble has arisen between the orchestral association and the Minneapolis Musicians Union.

The issue is whether the members of the symphony orchestra, all of whom belong to this union which is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, can give concerts in a public park where a band is employed whose members belong to another union.

The park board was asked by the Minneapolis Musicians Union to repudiate its contract with the other musical union, but refused to do so.

The orchestral association objected to interference with its right to control the appearance of its orchestra.

In a letter to guarantors of the orchestra, E. L. Carpenter, president of the orchestral association, said no way was seen to continue it unless the musicians receded from their stand.

Mr. Carpenter's statement has been forwarded to J. M. Weber, president of the musicians' national federation, according to officers of the local union.

It is said he plans to call a meeting of his national executive board but local union officials expect approval of their position.

Emil Oberholfer has been the orchestra's only conductor since it was organized in 1903. It was then made possible by the pledging of $200 each by 50 local citizens. Since then the list of guarantors has grown and more than a million dollars has been contributed to the organization.

In 1907 it made its first tour through adjacent states. These trips grew until in 1919 the orchestra visited eleven states and a part of Canada. The symphony also traveled east making its first appearance in Chicago in 1911 and in New York in 1912.

PAJAMAS ARE NOW SUITS

Constantinople, July 6.—American Red Cross and army pajamas are being converted into jaunty street clothes here by ingenious Russian refugee soldiers and civilians.

Hugh S. Bird, treasurer of the Red Cross, when here on a visit of inspection to dispose of a large quantity of supplies laid up in the warehouses, saw a spick-and-span monocolored Russian officer flourishing a cane and tanning himself with a straw hat, at the local Red Cross offices asking for some mail.

The officer looked so well put up that Mr. Bird stopped feeling sorry for the Russians for a moment until he took a second look at his clothes. He then saw that the man had taken a suit of pajamas sewed some shoulder strap braid on them strapped his officer's belt about them and rolled up the bottoms to give a trouser effect. By taking off his hat shoes, and belt the man was ready to go to bed.

Mr. Bird thought so well of the ingenuity of the man who had defeated the hot weather that he gave orders for several thousand more pajamas to be distributed so no Russian need wear a heavy, shabby winter clothes.

HOW IRON STARVATION OF THE BLOOD RUINS A WOMAN'S HEALTH— AND MAY MAKE HER WRINKLED, AGED AND CAREWORN, GIVING HER FACE A PALE, HAGGARD, SICKLY APPEARANCE

For want of iron you may practically be an old woman at from 30 to 35, weak, downhearted and "all fagged out." You may be in such a highly nervous irritable state that you "go all to pieces" on the slightest provocation, while at 30 or so with good health and plenty of iron in your blood, you may still be young in feeling and so attractive and full of life as to defy detection of your real age.

It's not always the youngest woman that is most sought after—there is an indescribably alluring fascination in the rosy cheek, the inviting lips and sparkling eyes of a blood filled with iron. You may be afflicted with iron starvation of the blood and not know it, just as thousands of other women are.

It is said that about one person in three in America today suffers more or less from main iron deficiency—lack of nourishment which is caused not by lack of food, but in many cases, by lack of sufficient iron in the blood to enable you to get the strength and nourishment out of your food.

Indoor life, over-eating and modern methods of cookery are sapping the iron from the blood of hundreds of thousands of women. Our forefathers, to whom history refers as a nation of red blooded Americans, ate the husks of grain and the skins and peels of vegetables and other coarse foods rich in strength giving organic iron which the modern woman does not get.

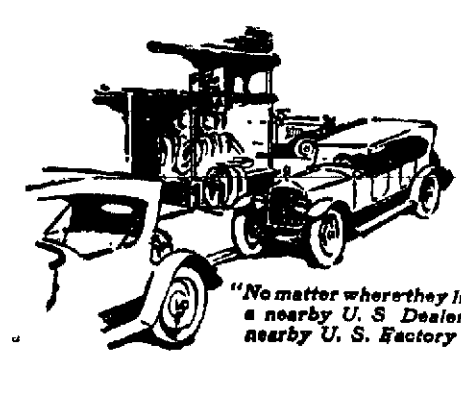

To make up for the great loss of iron caused by the life woman is compelled to lead she should eat more such iron-containing vegetables and fruits as spinach and baked apples and take organic iron like Nuxated Iron from time to time to help enrich her blood and revitalize her wornout, exhausted nerves.

Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such a highly condensed form that one dose of it is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating half a quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen apples. It's like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat.

Over 4,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. It often increases the bodily and mental vigor, strength and endurance of weak, nervous, "run-down" folks in two weeks' time. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain satisfactory results. Beware of substitutes. Nuxated Iron comes in tablet only—never in liquid form. Always look for the word "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.

"No matter where they live there's a nearby U. S. Dealer with his nearby U. S. Factory Branch"

Who says that "bargain" tires are what the people want

MOST everybody knows the easy-going sort of man who never takes a tire seriously until he gets a blow-out.

How long he will resist universal tire education is a question.

But this is sure—

More people are finding out every day that between leaving things to luck and getting real economy there is a big difference.

Many a car-owner has come to U. S. Tires because he couldn't afford to keep on paying that difference.

Probably seven out of ten users of U. S. Tires came to them only after they'd had enough of "discounts," "bargain offers," "clearance sales of surplus stocks" and other similar appeals.

They have found economy—and they stick to it.

They pay a net price—not "something off list" that may not mean anything in the first place.

They get fresh, live tires, being made and shipped while this message is being written.

No matter where they live there's a nearby U. S. Dealer with his nearby U. S. Factory Branch.

U. S. Tires keep moving.

No opportunity to get old and dried out. No shifting here and there trying to find a market.

Every U. S. Tire a good tire, wherever you find it anywhere in the country.

Because the U. S. policy is a good policy that serves the car-owner all the time.

Doing the very best for him that human good faith can do.

THE U. S. CHAIN TREAD

One of the few tires of which it may be said that they deliver economy year in and year out and tire after tire.

The U. S. Chain Tread gives sufficient traction on all ordinary road surfaces. It is probably the handsomest, and by all odds the most popular, of the whole U. S. Fabric Tire line.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

STAMPS
The first U. S. stamp was sold July 1, 1847, in New York city. Think what that event meant to people of Bismarck.
Before then it was necessary to go to the post-office to mail a letter, and the postmaster was paid in cash for every letter he posted.
Small as it is, the postage stamp has performed a great service, and one of the many kind things that can be said about it is that it was the first commodity to come down in price after the war.

MATRIMONY
Turkey has passed a law requiring all men above 25 years to marry immediately. The penalty for non-compliance is a quarter of the offender's income.
France, at its athletic carnival, awarded prizes which can be turned into cash partially when the winner marries, and partially at the births of his first three children.
It appears that matrimonial ideas in France are still somewhat in advance of those in Turkey.

MORE WASTE
Every time you look at a cigar box, Mr. American Smoker, you should worry!
Cigar boxes represent the appalling—and avoidable—waste of about $42,635,595 a year. The smokers pay for this wastage.
In the early days, the internal revenue department checked cigars by the box unit. To prevent frauds, a law was passed that cigar boxes must be destroyed after use.
Now cigars are checked by number or pound.
The law, however, still stands.
Why?
Because nobody has taken the trouble to change it!

VIEW POINT
Judge Nathan Smith, senator from Connecticut, was said to be "of the old school in his dress; a remnant of that race of men, the very form and fashion of whom are a passport to deference and respect; his white hair well powdered, a handsome blue coat with shining gilt buttons; drab kerseymer breeches, and top boots, the clean white tops of which were well contrasted by the elaborate black polish of the legs."
That was when he died in 1835.
One doubts if this fashion, worn on the street today, would win either deference or respect.

AN INTERESTING VOLUME
The Tribune is in receipt of a volume entitled "Every Day Religion" by Rev. James E. Freeman formerly of Minneapolis, but now of Washington, D. C. This volume is a collection of little sermons written for the Minneapolis Tribune. This from a reviewer sums up the value of the book:
"Here is a 'live' volume of addresses. The themes have direct bearing on the problems of every day existence in these critical, heart-searching days. The work cannot fail to furnish stimulus and enheartenment for all who recognize the deeper and larger problems of life."

NOBODY'S BUSINESS
A strange religious ceremony is staged by the Penitente sect at Abiquiu, New Mexico. Mrs. Alida F. Sims of Albuquerque happens to ride into the village in her Ford and sees:
A man, stripped to the waist, standing in a crowd, switching himself until the blood pours down his bare back.
"He's beating out his sins," a villager explained.
To hasten the departure of evil spirits, the penitent now and then paused to dip his switch into salt water.
Your comment probably is: "Why send missionaries to China?"
But what Mrs. Sims saw in New Mexico is worth more than a fleeting and facetious thought. It again emphasizes the contrasting types of people that are living together in peace in the enormous area of our country.
One of the more unique features of America is its varied races, and contrasting local customs, its chile can come of different sects and beliefs.
If European traditions and prejudices were repeated in our country, these people of opposite beliefs and customs would constantly be trying to reform each other with a shotgun.

That's why you can hardly live through a day without hearing: "Well, what if he is? This is a free country, isn't it?"
Or: "No, I haven't anything against them personally. It's just that I've got a different way of looking at it. What they do or think isn't any of my business."
That's the real American spirit—individual freedom.
One reason we get along so peacefully in the United States is because our continental territory is 3,026,789 square miles—plenty of elbow room.
That gives us a square mile for every 35 people. Germany had 300 people to the square mile—and went to war.
Japan proper has 440 people to the square mile—and makes diplomats lose sleep.
These countries may not fight civil wars among themselves, which proves that internal peace is not primarily a matter of non-congestion, but their sardine-packed population in recent years reached the point where their rulers began looking longingly at other nations' land, to keep peace at home.
Give Europe a century's recuperation and it'll probably be ready for another war.
For instance, Germans may again be fighting Frenchmen or Russians.
Yet if those potential and as yet unborn warriors could be transported to America in their early years, the idea of warring against each other would never occur to them, any more than the Germans, Russians and French now living as peaceful neighbors in the United States are thinking of flying at each other's throats.
Is land-hunger the real cause of world strife, of wars?
Or have we, in our republican form of government, something as yet undefined that holds the key to world peace?

Collector Uncle Sam finds the allies are his "closest" friends.

EDITORIAL REVIEW
Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

OLE AXVIG DEAD
Ole Axvig, a famous character in North Dakota in the pioneer days and several times a member of the legislature, died at his home in Milton the other day. Ole was an eccentric but shrewd farmer and with a Swedish dialect that would have made him a fortune on the stage. The story of how he once explained the possession of some contraband liquor with "I skall use him for turkey swim" has long been a Cavalier county classic.—Duluth Herald.

PRESIDENTS ARE THRIFTY
Most of the presidents since Hayes have had money enough or means of earning enough to permit them to live comfortably.
Hayes is said to have saved $44,000 a year during his term as president. At that rate he had at the end of his term some $176,000, which, invested at 5 per cent, would give him an annual income of $8,800.
Garfield was in office only five months before he died, but his successor, Arthur, is believed to have saved $50,000 during his three and a half years in office. Cleveland was a poor man when he went into the White House, but he retired to private life with a comfortable estate, due largely to wise investment of his savings. Harrison is said to have spent but about half of his salary.
McKinley went to the White House in debt, but during his five and a half years in the presidency he paid his debts and saved enough money to provide adequately for Mrs. McKinley after his death.
Roosevelt saved money while he was in the White House. He received legacies from his father during his life time which totaled nearly $200,000, but at his death he left an estate of $500,000, over half of which was saved by him during his term as president, or received by him for his writings.
Taft went to the White House in debt, as did McKinley; in four years he was out of debt and had saved money.
Woodrow Wilson had practically nothing before 1912, but in 1921 he bought a home in Washington for $150,000, paying for it in cash or its equivalent. He is planning to spend a similar amount on a country home, and he casually refused an offer for $250,000 for an article on the peace conference. He is evidently much better off than the college professor at Princeton, who, 20 years ago, applied for a Carnegie pension. Mrs. Wilson had a small fortune, but no such amount as the president has today. Associates of the president estimate that he saved $50,000 a year for eight years. Here is $400,000 which, added to the income from his books, an income greatly accelerated by his increased prominence, should enable him to live well during the rest of his life.
President Harding has manifested a tendency toward personal economy during his three months in the White House, which indicates that he, too, will save something out of his monthly check for $6,250.—Leslie's

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS
By Olive Barton Roberts

"So this is where they came!" he exclaimed.
As Nancy and Nick and Chickaree (the red squirrel), were hiding behind the hazel-bush watching Will Woodpecker sneak into Chick's house to eat up his maple sirup sap, there came such a flash and a crash that the whole three of them fell over backward.
At the same instant Mr. Sprinkle-Blow, the weatherman, landed beside them with his magic umbrella upon which he had sailed down from the sky. As usual, he looked worried to death. Really, Mr. Sprinkle-Blow was the very worriedest person you ever knew about. If folks only knew the trouble he had with his Nuisance Fairies, and the time he had keeping things in order. I'm sure they never would think of blaming him the way they do for this and that and the other thing.
Well, just now he was looking more worried than ever, and when he saw everybody in a heap it didn't help any. "So this is where they came!" he exclaimed. "This is the place those awful Nuisance Fairies landed! Now, what's to be done? If they go round knocking down my friends and helpers like this, they certainly ought to be punished."
Just then Nancy sat up and rubbed her eyes, then Nick and last of all, Chick Chickaree. At the same instant something fell with a thump right on top of Mr. Sprinkle-Blow's umbrella and then rolled off to the ground. It was Will Woodpecker, as limp as a dishrag.
"My goodness!" panted Will, opening one eye. "Just as I went to taste that maple sirup sap, it blew up and hit me. Chick Chickaree fooled me and put in gasoline instead."
"No," said Sprinkle-Blow. "It was Howly Thunder and Jumpy Lightning. They're loose again. Jumping around among the clouds and scaring folks plumb silly with their racket."

Remarkable Remarks
Girls, don't forget that your husband is a child. Don't be a pol. be a mother to him.—Mrs. Marion McDonnell, Seattle welfare worker.
Blue laws are hypocritical, cannot be enforced and have a demoralizing effect on the community.—Allen T. Burns, social worker.
Prohibition is here to stay. It will never be changed or modified.—John F. Kramer, former federal prohibition commissioner.
The time has come for woman to get into politics, for the country needs her badly.—Genevieveoline, Cleveland lawyer.
Young people are deserting the country for two reasons: Monotony and lack of money.—Homer Folks, secretary, New York Charities Aid Association.
From close study and observation of those condemned to the gallows, I am of the opinion that capital punishment does not diminish crime.—The Rev. James Helenski, New Orleans priest.
There is no reason why cinema theaters should not be added to the public wants provided by the co-operative movement.—George Bernard Shaw, British writer.

ANOTHER WOMAN ESCAPES
Mrs. McCumber Avoided a Serious Operation by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Time
Georgetown, Ill.—"After my first baby was born I suffered so with my left side that I could not walk across the floor unless I was all bumped over, holding to my side. I doctored with several doctors but found no relief and they said I would have to have an operation. My mother insisted on my taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. Now I can do all my own work and it is the Vegetable Compound that has saved me from an operation. I cannot praise my medicine too highly and I tell all of my friends and neighbors what the Compound did for me."
Mrs. MARGARET McCUMBER, 27 S. Frazier St., Georgetown, Illinois.
Mrs. McCumber is one of the untold thousands of housewives who struggle to keep about their daily tasks, while suffering from ailments common to women with the name. Backaches, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, and if every such case should profit by her experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial they would, I think.

Duluth, July 7. The wheat market was nervous today under conflicting influences. Prices eased moderately around the opening with the renewed offerings as results of the good crop reports coming in from over the Northwest. Support appeared later inspired by predictions of higher temperature in some districts. The moderate gains were, however, not held, however, as traders were more disposed to load up pending more definite crop situation. The close was strong in the distant spring wheat futures.

From Golden Valley County.
J. D. Halstead, Plaintiff and Appellant, v. Missouri Slope Land & Investment Company, a corporation, et al. Defendants and Respondents.
Syllabus. In this action two parties, H and M, were asserting conflicting claims of ownership in a certain tract of land. During the pendency of litigation involving such claims, H, the one in possession, surrendered possession to M, pursuant to a written agreement, signed by M, and two sureties, wherein it was agreed that "in case the court should decree the return of said land to H, he will return the same to him together with $500.00 per year as damages for the use and occupancy of the said premises." For reasons stated in the opinion it is held that the agreement in this case was one for the payment of a rental, fixed by them, contingent upon the determination of the ownership of the premises, and not one whereby the amount of damages to be paid or other compensation to be made for a breach of an obligation is determined in anticipation thereof.

From Dunn County.
J. O. Sylvester and A. J. Sylvester, Plaintiffs and Appellants, v. Am. House Mackey, Defendants and Respondents.
Syllabus. 1. Is an action in claim and delivery, the plaintiff has no recovery on the strength of his own title or right of possession and not on the weakness of his adversary.

From Morton County.
Fridolin Krieger, Plaintiff, v. Max Schultz, et al. Defendants, and Farmers and Merchants State bank of New Salem, Appellant.
Syllabus. This is an action to foreclose a first mortgage on real property. The buildings situated on the realty were injured by fire, and upon adjustment of the loss the plaintiff received a draft from the insurance company for the amount thereof, he did not retain it, but endorsed it over to the mortgagees upon their promise to expend the funds in repairing the buildings. A second mortgage likewise collected the proceeds at another fire insurance policy and credited the same upon its mortgage, and, thereafter, upon foreclosure of its second mortgage, became the purchaser and eventually the owner of the premises through issuance of a sheriff's deed. It is held, for reasons stated in the opinion, that the amount of the debt received by the first mortgagee and by him turned over to the mortgagees should not be deducted from or credited upon, the amount due on the first mortgage.

From a judgment of the district court of Morton county, Hanley, J. defendant, Farmers and Merchants State Bank of New Salem, appellants.
Affirmed. Opinion by Chief Justice Christianson, J.

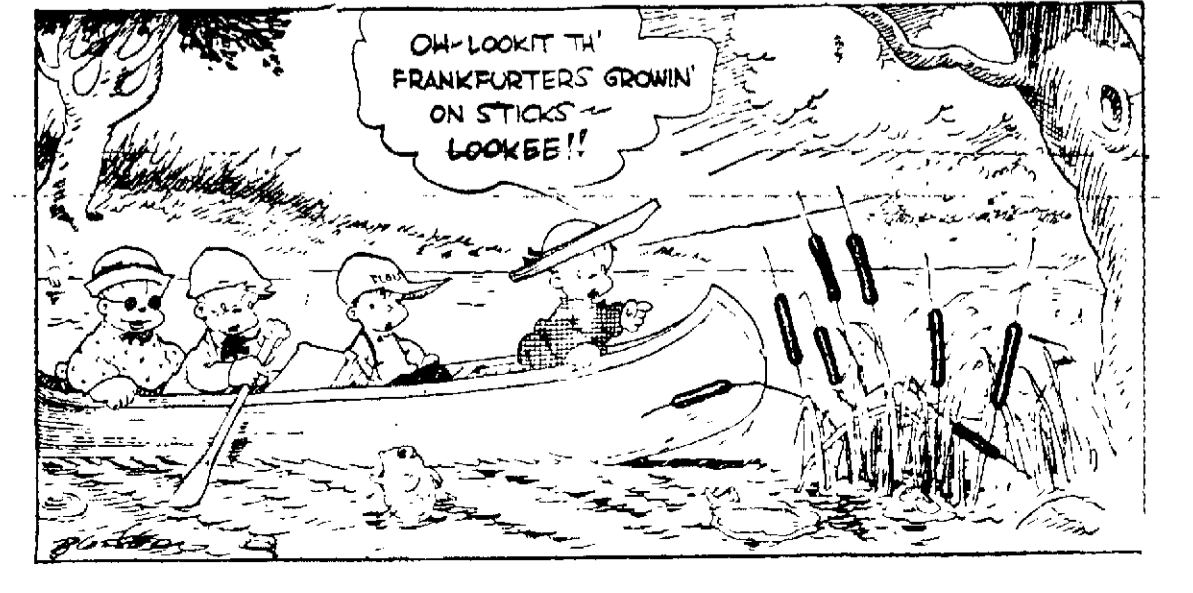

Newton, Duffam & Young, of Bismarck, for appellants.
Sullivan, Hanley & Sullivan, of Mandan, for respondents.

From a judgment of the district court of Morton county, Hanley, J. defendant, Farmers and Merchants State Bank of New Salem, appellants.
Affirmed. Opinion by Chief Justice Christianson, J.

W. A. Carns, of Bismarck, and W. F. Barnett, of Dickinson, N. D., attorneys for appellants.
T. F. Murtha, of Dickinson, N. D., attorney for respondents.

COLLEGE GIRL GETS LINE ON CLERK PROBLEM

Kansas City, July 5.—With the idea of some day becoming a department store official, Miss Elizabeth Boyd, a recent Smith College graduate, is working behind the counter in a downtown store here, selling everything from tramping pads to books and eyes.

It's hard work, Miss Boyd says, but thorough, interesting. And she is learning not only the stock and the business itself, but the human side of it as well. For none of her associates knows that she is there on any different footing than they are.

"Some of them were inclined not to have much to do with me at first," says Miss Boyd, "but I found the road to their hearts when I began reading the girls' papers to them during lunch hour. And now I have more heart problems to solve than Laura Jean Libby."

Another discovery Miss Boyd has made is that "honey" is the most overworked word in the English language in department store circles. All the girls in her store "honey" each other and "honey" the customers and a considerable number of the customers "honey" them in return.

"It is perfectly amazing," she said, "to discover how many of them in this store have been married and divorced before they are 19. Love affairs are the one great topic of conversation and interest among many department store girls here, and the fact that one husband has turned out badly is no discomfiture."

I like them and I've made a lot of friends, but you'd be surprised to find how few I know have any idea of staying with their work or rising in it. With a whole lot of them, it's simply a matter of holding a job until they can get married, or until they can save up money enough to get a divorce and start over.

"These floor walkers? Yes, they're not only very pretty, but some of them are really very nice. I've come across a couple that my boss seemed surprised to hear about. But of course the boss wouldn't tell me."

In a few weeks I've certainly learned a lot I never did in college, and it seems to me it ought to make me a lot more valuable in a bigger job when I'm ready for it, to know what Nellie at the ribbon counter thinks about her employers and the world in general.

Social and Personal

LETTERS FROM MEETING

Miss S. J. Gannon, director of the State Board of Education, has just returned from a meeting of the National Education Association. The meeting was held at the New Haven Hotel where about eight hundred of those in attendance were also in attendance. The meeting was the largest in the history of the association, there being over a hundred in attendance. The largest number in attendance at any one time was at the meeting of June 19th, held at the Hotel New Haven. The address of the meeting at the first session was made by Dr. George Edward Woodberry, the well known author. Other important speakers during the meetings were: Sarah Louise Arnold, dean of Simmons College; Dallas L. Sharp, professor in Boston University; Miss Amy Lowell, author; Mr. Joseph Lincoln, author; and Mr. Robert Frost, author. The association was also addressed at some of its meetings by the Governor of Massachusetts and the Mayor of Boston.

ROSE SHOP OPENED

Miss Rose Flannigan opened her pretty Rose Shop, formerly in the Little Block yesterday. The entire color scheme is rose and gray and certainly gives a restful feeling. The floor, draperies, furniture, dressing table and even the screens carry out this pleasing color scheme.

Miss Flannigan has an exceptionally good line of ladies wearing apparel and a new shop shows this off to advantage. The first dress in the room which is entirely class is a novel as well as useful feature. Miss Anna Mae Ankerman of this city will assist Miss Flannigan.

IT HAS BEEN SAID

There are a great many housewives planning to make their housework and cooking problems a duty of least worry during the summer months, and it has been said by so many that to reduce their cooking and getting away from the hot kitchen, they are just ordering from John's Sanitary Meat Market, their Home Made Bologna Sausage which makes a satisfactory meal.

IMPORTANT POST FOR WOMAN

DR. VALERIA PARKER.

Washington, July 7.—Dr. Valeria H. Parker, of Hartford, Conn., executive secretary of the International Social Hygiene Board, is the first woman to have ever been appointed to that position.

Dr. Parker's position carries with it an appropriation of $25,000 yearly. The money, according to the appointment, will be used in protective social measures near military and naval centers.

BROWN FUNERAL WILL BE HELD IN SOUTH DAKOTA

The remains of Mrs. M. W. Brown who was found dead Tuesday in her apartment in the Business College block were shipped to Fullerton, Nebraska where burial will take place. Mrs. J. W. Scott, of seventh street, daughter of the deceased, with her son, Edward, accompanied the remains to Fullerton where Mrs. Scott will be met by her brother from San Francisco.

Funeral arrangements will not be made until the party reaches Nebraska. Mrs. Scott's sister who lives in Portland, Oregon, could not be communicated with and it is doubtful whether any message will reach her in time for her to attend the funeral.

SISTER MARY SAYS RESEASON IT

Whenever meat or vegetables are "warmed-over" they should be re-seasoned. No matter how perfectly the dish was salted and peppered for the first serving, more salt and pepper will be necessary if the left-over dish is to be a success.

Menu for Tomorrow
Breakfast—Orange juice, spinach with poached eggs on toast, coffee.
Luncheon—Cream of tomato soup, croquettes, Martha's pudding, tea.
Dinner—Roll of mutton, rice potatoes, dandelion greens, banana and peanut salad, fudge cake, coffee.

My Own Recipes
The tomatoes left after straining for soup should be saved and used for scalloped tomatoes the next day. Whenever possible wait one or two days before repeating a meat or vegetable. If put in a cool place in a covered dish the tomatoes should keep several days.

Martha's Pudding
One and one-half cups chopped prunes, 1 cup molasses, 3-4 cup Graham flour, 1-2 cup white flour, 1 cup sweet milk, 1 teaspoon soda, 1-2 teaspoon each cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg and salt, 2 eggs.

Beat eggs and molasses. Mix dry ingredients and prunes. Add milk and dry ingredients alternately to first mixture. Turn into a buttered mold and steam 2 hours. Serve with hard sauce or lemon sauce.

Roll of Mutton
One and one-half pounds lean mutton, 1-2 pound ham, 4 tablespoons bread crumbs 1 teaspoon minced parsley, 1-2 teaspoon powdered mixed herbs, 1-2 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1-2 teaspoon minced onion 1-2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-1 teaspoon pepper, 1 egg, milk.

Chop meat finely. Mix with dry ingredients. Add egg, onion and mix thoroughly. Add enough milk to moisten. Bake into a roll. Wrap in three or four thicknesses of greased brown paper and bake in a moderate oven for 2 hours. Half an hour before serving remove paper, dredge the roll with flour and brown. Baste with 1 tablespoonful of butter in 1-2 cup boiling water. Make a gravy in the pan in which the meat was cooked. (Copyright, 1921, N. E. A.)

YOUR SKIN DINGY?

When the skin becomes dingy in summer, the less strenuous the treatment given it, the better. Summer is really the season in which the skin should rest, so let the remedies resorted to be of the simple home kind.

A really effective bleacher can be made of lemon juice and water. Take three parts lemon juice to one part water. Put the mixture on the face after cleansing in the evening and let remain on all night.

Cucumbers have bleaching qualities and, are, of course, harmless. An excellent cream can be made of one large grated cucumber, about a half cup of sour cream mixed with enough powdered oatmeal to make a cream. This can also be applied at night and let it remain on the face. It can be followed during the day with a good cold cream, the less greasy the better in summer.

IF GLOVES WEAR

If your gloves are good, gloves worn through at the finger tips, turn them inside out and stretch around the tips of them. Then pull them together and they will have the finish in a new glove.

NORTHWEST TO PRODUCE GOOD CROP IS CLAIM

Federal Reserve Agent Says It Is Most Economical Crop in Years

Fargo, July 7.—Predictions that the Northwest will produce a good grain crop this season and that the producers will receive a reasonable price for their grain was made by Curtis L. Mosher, assistant federal reserve agent for the reserve bank of Minneapolis, in an address before the fourth annual convention of the North Dakota Grainmen's Union today.

Mosher declared that this year's crop was the most economical that the Northwest has grown in the past 25 years, due to the low cost of seed and labor.

The grainmen closed their sessions today.

WOULD BOOST EXPRESS RATES

North Dakota Case Up To The Interstate Commerce Commission

Washington, July 7.—An investigation to determine whether rates maintained by the American Railway Express company within the state of North Dakota are prejudicial to interstate commerce was ordered today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The inquiry grows out of a petition filed by the express company charging that the North Dakota railroad commission had denied the company's request to increase its rates for state traffic to the level of those in interstate traffic.

DEMOCRATS IN TARIFF ATTACK

Denounce Republican Plan As Plunder of Nations

Washington, July 7.—Democratic members of the ways and means committee in the minority report filed today in the house of representatives denounced the administration tariff bill as a "conspiracy to benefit a few favorites at the expense of all humanity."

"Like every conspiracy it had been handled in secrecy," the report says, adding:

"We record our solemn judgment that this measure is a plan to turn over the plunder of our own country and to oppress the people of every country for the benefit of a few men who have succeeded in usurping for all practical purposes the taxing power of this government using it primarily to enrich themselves and secondarily to finance the political party which tolerates, encourages and facilitates the usurpation."

The report declared the tariff was not an issue in the last campaign and that this is not the time to write tariff law.

HOUSE PRESSES TARIFF BILL

Republican Majority Will Work Under Debate Limitation

Washington, July 7.—With the house beginning consideration of the general tariff bill today, the republican majority has fixed July 21 as the date for a final vote on the measure. Under the program of procedure agreed upon at a republican conference last night the period for general discussion will be limited to July 14. Debate thereafter will be under the five minute limitation rule.

PANDOWDY GOOD DISH

Are you fond of maple sugar? Then this old New England Pandowdy will delight you. It isn't a new recipe, but one unearthed from so long ago that it will be new to this generation.

Butter a cooking kettle and make a crust to put into it, leaving only a small place at the bottom without any crust. Then put in some good cooking apples either quartered and cored or sliced. Add a few strips of crust, a few more apples, a large cup of maple syrup, a few slices of salt pork and 1-2 cup of good cider. Cover the whole with crust and cover the kettle tightly. Cook slowly for three hours, being careful not to scorch it. Serve with sweet cream and maple sugar.

PINEAPPLE PUDDING.
Don't neglect the pineapple with its throat-soothing qualities. You will find this pudding really very fine. Use 1 cup of cold water, 1 cup of pineapple juice, 2 tablespoons of corn starch, 1-2 cup of sugar, 2 egg yolks. Put all but the egg yolks in a double boiler to heat. When hot add the eggs. When smooth and thickened add the beaten whites of the eggs and then 1 cup of pineapple juice in small squares. Put in the oven and brown. Serve hot or cold with whipped cream. Pineapples are very good served in this way, too.

BEAD BRACELET.
For evening wear the newest ornament is the beaded bracelet. These are quite wide and beaded in very elaborate designs.

Can Raspberries and Loganberries Now

Here is one of the many delicious ways to serve loganberries:

Loganberry Pie

8 cups berries, 1 cup sugar, 3 tablespoons flour. Mix all together. Line plate with paste and build up a fluted rim. Bake in a quick oven at 425 to 450 F. Decrease heat afterwards. Cook until berries are done. When cold, cover with whipped cream, or a meringue.

Meringue made with whites of two eggs, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 teaspoon lemon juice. Beat egg whites until stiff. Add sugar gradually, then flavoring. Cover pie and return to oven. Bake meringue.

RASPBERRIES and loganberries won't be on the market much longer. Start now to preserve plenty, in many different ways. They make delicious jams, preserves, sauce, etc.

You save 1/3 to 1/2 by doing your own canning. Besides, you can't buy the fine quality that Mother can put into home preserves. Check up on your supply of Ball Mason jars, and start canning raspberries and loganberries soon.

HARDING GOES TO CAPITAL TO MEET SENATORS

Washington, July 7.—President Harding broke a presidential precedent today by motoring to the capitol and taking lunch with some of his old associates in the senate. The president left the White House at 1 P. M. without announcing his destination and dropped in unexpectedly on the senators in the midst of their luncheon hour. It was taken for granted that pressing questions of legislation undoubtedly would come up for discussion during the meeting.

DEMAND SULTAN GIVE UP THRONE

Turkish Nationalist Government Makes Demand

Athens, July 7.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Turkish Nationalist government in Ankara, according to advices from Constantinople has demanded that Sultan Mohammed VI abdicate. The latter replied he was ready to abdicate in favor of any member of the imperial family with the exception of Prince Abdul Mjid, the legal heir who belongs to the Nationalist party, the advices add.

LOVE BOSTON "BOSS" DIES

Politician Held Hearts of People of Tenement District

Boston, July 7.—Diamond Jim Tifflity, a political boss beloved of his people, is dead and the Roxbury district where he rose from bricklayer to state senator mourned his passing today. Death came yesterday at his place in Sharon where he had gone to make his fight against tuberculosis.

The ward boss endearing himself to his constituents by countless charities had stayed close to them in their tenement district notwithstanding his own greatly improved fortune until illness forced him to seek better air.

FOREST FIRES STILL RAGING

Conditions in Province of Quebec Not Reassuring

Quebec, July 7.—Reports from the area in this province being swept by forest fires continues to be anything but reassuring, officials said today after a conference last night with forest rangers throughout the province.

Local showers have in some instances helped when the fires were just starting, but where the blaze had gained headway it was declared a long and heavy downpour would be necessary to relieve the situation.

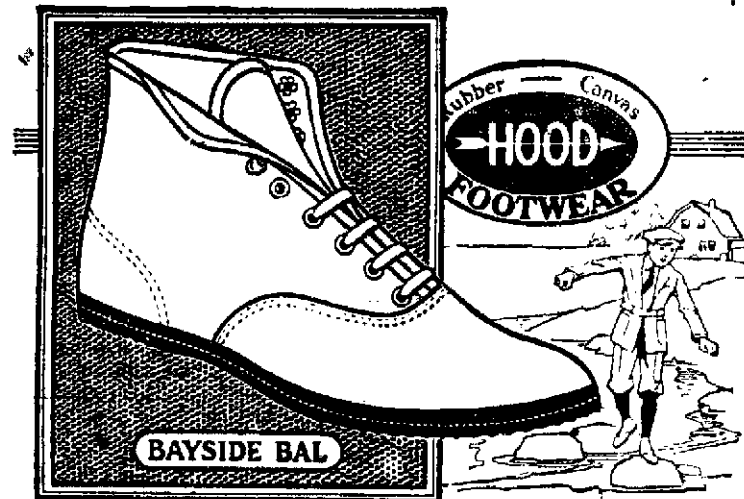

Duluth, July 7.—The long drought having been broken by general showers the forest fire menace in northern Minnesota has abated at least temporarily, forestry men said today. All of the larger fires have subsided and only a few small fires were reported today as still burning.

KIDNAPED EARL IS NOT FOUND

Belfast, July 7.—Although police and military are scouring the country in search of the Earl of Bandon, who was kidnapped at Bentry, county Cork, June 21, when his residence was burned, no trace has thus far been found of him. It is believed he is being held as a hostage for the safety of some condemned Republican.

BEER REPORT IN FEW DAYS

Washington, July 7.—Action on permits to manufacture medicinal beer will be deferred for another week or two, Secretary Mellon said today. The house bill to permit the sale of such beer has been favorably recommended to the committee by the judiciary committee and Chairman Sterling expects to bring it up in the senate within a few days.

RICKARD STILL FIGURING WHAT FIGHT BROUGHT

Estimates His Profit Will Be Over Half a Million Dollars

U. S. WINS LOT OF CASH

New York, July 7.—Tex Rickard figured today that his net profit from the Dempsey-Carpentier fight yesterday would be in the neighborhood of five hundred fifty thousand dollars.

Expert accountants were busy for two days checking and balancing the books used in the promotion of the contest. Rickard said he did not expect a final and accurate statement before Wednesday but that expenses of all kinds would approximate nine hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and taxes on his share one hundred thousand dollars while the gross gate receipts were expected to exceed one million, six hundred thousand dollars.

It was also figured out that Dempsey earned in the neighborhood of twenty nine thousand dollars per minute for his ten minutes and 16 seconds of actual fighting. Carpentier's profits as the loser in the contest were approximately nineteen thousand five hundred dollars per minute.

The United States government will receive in one form or another, a considerable portion of the three hundred thousand dollars paid Dempsey and the two hundred thousand dollars which was Carpentier's share of the purse. Total government proceeds from the bout will total more than four hundred thousand dollars, revenue officials estimate. The income tax will take about one hundred sixty thousand dollars of the three hundred thousand dollars earned by Dempsey and about seventy seven thousand dollars of Carpentier's share. The federal revenue from the sale of tickets will amount to about one hundred sixty thousand dollars.

Fights sellers who resold the paste boards at an increased price are required to give 50 percent of their profits to the government. The state of New Jersey, under provisions of the boxing law, also collects 30 percent of the gate receipts. Profits of preliminary boxers and all ring officials also will be taxed, adding to the government proceeds of the bout.

George Carpentier must pay his entire tax to the United States before sailing for France. Dempsey may pay his tax in four installments next year, the first being due in March 1922. Revenue officials have pointed out that Carpentier also is likely to face another stringent income tax on arrival in France, shrinking still more the earnings of the defeated boxer.

In many respects the contest, from a news reporting standpoint, was the greatest of its kind in the world. According to actual count, there were 823 reporters and telegraphers in the two press sections of the arena. More than one hundred wires, including telegraph, cable and telephone, were used to carry the news to every point of the world.

Of the boxing figures are unavailable it is estimated that the number of words filed about the fight either in Jersey city or New York during the sixteen hours between 8 A. M. and midnight of July 2, ran close to the million mark.

Messages were received by Rickard from many persons congratulating him upon the success of his enterprise including two from William A. Brady and Charles A. Cochran, who were joint promoters with Rickard when the contract for the bout was signed, later both Brady and Cochran withdrew and left Rickard to promote the affair alone.

JACK JOHNSON PLANS TO STAGE REAL COME BACK

By Newspaper Enterprise Leavenworth, Kas., July 7.—The world is soon to see again the golden smile of the new Jack Johnson. When he walks outside the cold prison walls July 9, a free man, he'll be in fighting trim.

He aims to build anew the career in the ring which made him and which dropped him to the bottom.

Prison life has hardened his muscles. Uncle Sam's simple diet has rebuilt his dissipated body.

"I weigh 230 and am as hard as nails," says Jack.

"And sah, I is ready foh da best of 'em."

"I'm to get $30,000 foh a match with Mistah Harry Wills in New York. That is, I'm guaranteed that much with a privilege of 25 per cent."

"Thirty thousand ain't bad foh a man like me, jes gittin' out o' dis beah place."

In preparation for being a free man, the former champion has ordered his tailors to build him a dozen suits of natty clothes.

His first match is scheduled with Jack Glover of Chicago the night of his release at Leavenworth.

STERLING LOSES ONLY ONE GAME

Sterling, N. D.—July 7.—Sterling's last baseball team beat McKenzie July 4 at McKenzie by a score of 10 to 7. The fine work of E. Kusler in the box and his three bagger and home run were features of the game. Sterling held a big celebration on the Fourth of July. Races, a dance and a ball game brought out a large crowd. The Sterling baseball team has lost but one game this season.

STRANGER WAS FOUND IN RING, DEMPSEY SAYS

Heavyweight Champion Tells of Mysterious Action of Pair

Chicago, July 7.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, here today on his way home in Salt Lake City, charged that during his fight Saturday with Georges Carpentier two men were found in his corner with a towel, intended, he believed, throwing the towel into the ring to create confusion.

Dempsey said the two men were found in his corner in the third round. "One man had a towel in his hand," said Dempsey, "and my friend, Mike Trant, questioned him. The man told Trant that Rickard had put them there. Trant did not credit the story and had the police take them away. I believe these men intended to throw the towel into the ring, for my corner creating a scene of disorder."

FARGO'S TEAM ON LONG TRIP

Devils Lake, Minot and Bismarck Will Be Played in Turn

Fargo, July 7.—Entirely refreshed from their Fourth of July celebration which ended in a 13 to 5 count for the locals over the Calgary Black Sox, the Fargo Athletics left today for a seven-game away-from-home trip. Manager Lenahan, with 10 of his ball-players, left for Devils Lake to meet the team at that city in a twilight battle today.

After one game with Devils Lake the slugging Fargo crew will go to Minot for a return series with that team. Fargo won two times from the Magic City nine here but with the "moral support" of the home team fans, Minot hopes to even the account.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week will find the Gate City team at Bismarck where the Capitol boys will battle them. When the locals leave Bismarck they will bring the Calgary nine back to Fargo with them and play a return series here Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Clarence Jensen has returned to the club for keeps and will do a full share of the pitching burden on the trip. Kutina, a hurler from the Rugby, N. D. club, who has attracted the attention of Manager Lenahan, has been secured by the locals and will join the club at Devils Lake today. Boardman will be the third man for pitching duty.

LINTON HOLDS BASEBALL LEAD

Linton, July 7.—Linton still holds the lead in the Emmons county baseball league. Linton defeated Napoleon, 10 to 0, and Hazelton defeated Braddock, 17 to 5, Sunday.

Strasburg was second in the race after Sunday's games. Braddock third, Hazelton fourth and Napoleon fifth.

LARGE CROWD AT MINSTREL SHOW

Real, old-time Georgia minstrels were seen at the Auditorium last night by a large audience when Bucko and Hawkward's company played in the city. The show included 15 vaudeville acts and minstrel scenes. All the players were colored men. Their music ranged from jazz to old plantation melodies.

SANDLOTTERS BIGGER THAN "PROS"

JAMES H. LOWRY, PRESIDENT OF THE N. B. F.

The National Baseball Federation, the largest players' organization in the world, is pushing further west. It already controls over 100,000 sandlot players.

President James H. Lowry, Indianapolis, is planning a campaign to extend the influence of the federation to Pacific Coast cities.

The annual meeting will be held July 11 at Cincinnati to organize for the work ahead.

The purpose of the organization is to standardize baseball among the simon pure amateurs and the semi-pros.

It controls 200 teams in Cleveland, O., and about the same number in New York City, Pittsburgh and Chicago.

There are three different classes of players allied with the federation. The Triple A and the Double A permit players to receive small salaries, while the A class is strictly amateur.

Teams play in groups for sectional championships in their respective classes and a small world's series is staged in the fall.

Johnstown, Pa., won the Triple A pennant last year, Cleveland the Double A and Detroit the amateur consolation.

The sandlot body has the distinction of having drawn more people to a single game than any ball game ever played. A crowd of 115,000 people turned out in Cleveland to see the White Motors team win from Omaha's crack semi-pro nine.

Of sandlot graduates now pastiming in the majors and starring, George Uhle of the Cleveland Indians stands out. Uhle is one of Cleveland's main standbys this year.

The organization is very strict, though fair in its rulings. Stealing of players by one town from another is not permitted.

Teams are supported many different ways. That is left to the cities themselves. In some cases the players contribute to the general expense fund. At other places the gate receipts are relied upon.

The officials of the federation, besides President Lowry, are J. P. Townes, Cleveland; Tom Nokes, Johnstown, Pa.; Ralph Davis and W. S. Haddock, Pittsburgh; V. E. Zetterling, Detroit; B. J. Brumleve, Louisville, Ky.; Cliff E. Martin and Adolph A. Gruber, Cincinnati; Frank Kelley, Flint, Mich.

Even the big league have to look up to the sandlot body so far as interest and size counts. The two major leagues control but 400 players, while the National Association of Baseball Leagues has about 20,000 players under its thumb.

Judge K. M. Landis will be asked to assume the job of honorary president of the sandlotters at the coming meeting in Cincinnati.

AMERICAN LEAGUERS SHY 1920 PUNCH

At this stage in the American League race no team is hitting on all cylinders.

There isn't a club which shows the power of either the 1920 Indians, which won the pennant, or the balance of the clicking White Sox before the wreck.

Cleveland, Detroit, New York and Washington look strong enough to keep in front of the other four clubs. Analysis of clubs shows:

CLEVELAND—Batting power but getting poor pitching.

NEW YORK—Pitchers burned out, batting streaky.

DETROIT—Batting strength, fair pitching, poor fielding.

WASHINGTON—No particular weak spots and no outstanding strong ones.

ST. LOUIS—Plenty of hitting, poor pitching and poor baseball.

CHICAGO—Faber and Kerr unable to pitch along second rate team.

BOSTON—Sen infield in league, fair pitching, but can't hit.

ATHLETICS—Free hitters, but inexperienced and lack punch.

STICK TO THEIR CELLAR.
Philadelphia is again entertaining the cellar clubs of the big leagues.

Neither President Baker of the Phillies or Connie Mack-Shibe & Co. seem disposed to spend the money to buy high-priced talent.

Baker is a close watch over the well-known wallet. Mack likes to grow his players.

Both Philadelphia teams made a little money last year. They'll make a little this summer.

But there is an old axiom that "You have to spend money in order to make money."

NEED GOLF NERVES.
England's golf is still a step ahead of America's game.

It will be interesting to see how the Britons will fare when they come to the States later this summer.

Nerves seemed to be the one universal fault of our American stars abroad.

It wouldn't be surprising to see them "reverse the English" in the matches on our own courses.

BABE—THE EXTREMIST.
Babe Ruth doesn't do anything by halves. His system craves the superlative in everything.

When he hits the baseball he hits it farther than any other human being.

When he drives his motor car he exceeds the speed limit.

When he eats he lucks away far more than the ordinary diner.

When he dances he stays on the floor way into the night, long after it is time for athletics to be in bed.

When he bets he shoots the whole roll.

Babe'll never be called a piker in anything he undertakes.

"TAKE HIM OUT."
For the first time in his life, Walter Johnson is compelled to listen to the bitter thrust of "Take him out."

Time was when Walter was greater than all the rest of the stars put together.

PROPOSALS FOR PEACE DO NOT STOP FIGHTING

More Casualties Reported in Ireland While Peace Confabs Go On

Dublin, July 7.—(By the Associated Press.)—Negotiations under way for peace in Ireland have not as yet brought about an armistice and today's soldiers were searching pedestrians believed likely to be carrying concealed arms in the streets of Dublin.

A police patrol was ambushed last night in Camolin, county Wexford, by men with bombs and rifles. During a 15-minute battle which ensued four constables were wounded.

Other ambushes occurred in Corrosin, county Clare, and Thomas Town, county Kilkeeny, without casualties.

Officials here were uncommunicative concerning today's conference, believing that any announcement at this time might be prejudicial to the peace parley.

It is believed, however, that General Smuts brought from Mr. DeValera and his associates definite proposals and that the reply to these will have a great bearing on Friday's conference in Dublin.

STOCK MARKET IN RECOVERY

Mexican Oils Strengthen on Protection Report

New York, July 7.—The stock market today experienced a sharp recovery from its recent heaviness after an initial period in which foreign oils were again extremely weak.

Before noon under extensive buying orders Mexican petroleum rallied to 96 1/2 and other shares of the same class rebounded proportionately.

Recovery was accompanied by reports that steps were being taken to protect American and British oil interests in Mexico.

DISCOVERS NEW, POWERFUL GAS

New York, July 7.—Scientists and inventors today discussed the remarkable qualities of a new gas which Dr. Miller Reese Hutchinson, former chief engineer for Thomas A. Edison, claims may be developed to haul a projectile of five tons from 200 to 300 miles.

Its velocity, he declared, ranges from 1 to 5 miles a second. The gun is the invention of John Temple, an Englishman, who developed the idea in this country.

The noise it made at a demonstration sounded much like the click of a cash register though only a miniature weapon with an eight-inch barrel was used.

English Children Are Americanized Through Seeing Films

London, July 7.—English children are rapidly becoming Americanized through seeing nothing but American moving pictures, is the contention of A. G. Granger, manager of an education picture series who holds that film education ought to be part of every school curriculum.

"Millions of children go to the pictures regularly," he said to an interviewer. "In American films no opportunity is lost to introduce the American flag; American motors are shown and popularized; American ideas in dress, furniture, habits and customs are being continually put before the children, with the result that they know more about Lincoln and the North and South wars than about Oliver Cromwell and Nelson."

"Where did the fashion for bobbed hair come from? From America, and by the film," he added.

All English teachers are now in favor of introducing the film into the schools, Mr. Granger says.

SMOKED HAM

A thoroughly delicious dish for the really hungry person is made by using a large slice of ham, sprinkling it with pepper, putting it in a spider and covering it with milk. Bake it in a hot oven until brown on the top then turn and brown on the other side.

Oysters cannot live in the Baltic sea because it is not salty enough.
